This exceptional bed and breakfast stands in Portland's historic Irvington District. Built in 1906 originally to serve as a private residence, the Lion and the Rose provides a gateway back to a different time in Portland's history, and is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

This elegant Queen Anne Victorian offers six guest rooms; each uniquely decorated and with their own private bath. The mansion has been updated to offer air conditioning, telephone, TV, and data-ports in each room.
